The Heritage Plantation of Sandwich on Cape Cod, open for its sixteenth season, has four colorful new exhibits in the Arts and Crafts Building, Military Museum and Round Barn. Also on the summer program are special events featuring some sparkling new entertainment, four rotating exhibits in the Old Barn Gallery, and many lectures and gallery talks.

"Harbors and Small Ships", in the lower gallery of the Round Barn, is a special exhibit of harbor scenes and other marine-scapes by Frank Vining Smith (1879-1967) supplemented by ship models from members of the USS Constitution Model Shipwright Guild of Massachusetts. The core of the selection of Smith's work, all from the Museum's own collection, are twenty-odd Cape Cod scenes done in the late 1940's and early 1950's. The paintings were the result of an agreement between Smith and Josiah Kirby Lilly, Jr., for whom the Museum is a memorial. Smith would present Mr. Lilly with an artistic, not photographic, record of views of harbors and coastal areas to preserve the memory of a Cape Cod that they both loved and which was rapidly changing. Scenes of Quissett, Woods Hole, the Vineyard, Hadley's Harbor, Chatham Bars, Wellfleet and Barnstable are included in the show.

The ship models illustrate the diversified craft of New England's foremost model making guild. Eighteenth to twentieth century vessels are represented in scaled miniature.

"A Pennsylvania-German Sampler" is the premier 1984 exhibition in the north gallery wing of the Arts and Crafts Building. The Pennsylvania-Germans are highly regarded today as the creators of one of the most significant folk art traditions in America. This exhibit presents a survey of the variety of objects and colorful decorative motifs utilized by the German settlers of Penn's Woods. The special Military Museum exhibition is "Armor and Arms" from the collection of the John Woodman Higgins Armory Museum, Worcester. This display which represents the type of armor and weapons used from 1450 to 1750 includes three complete composite harnesses or suits of armor of the styles popular from 1490-1560. Also featured in the exhibition are two three-quarter suits, including exquisite French blued armor for a cuirassier or cavalry man, c. 1610-1670, and a suit of half-armor for a pikeman.

"Sea and Shore", the marine art of Ben Neill and Ann Sullivan, Cape Cod artists, will be on exhibit in the Old Barn Gallery through July 29th. Both artists were shown

MANDALA FOLK DANCE ENSEMBLE AT HERITAGE PLANTATION OF SANDWICH

The Mandala Folk Dance Ensemble, one of New England's leading performing groups, will present a program of international and American dance and music at Heritage Plantation of Sandwich Sunday, July 22nd, at 2 p.m.

Known for its exuberant performance of international dance, Mandala Folk Dance Ensemble is a Boston-based company of thirty-five dancers, singers and musicians who perform international and American folk dance and music. Mandala offers a unique cultural experience to its audiences, with programs that reflect both the traditions of the Old world and a common American Heritage. The Ensemble's world tour takes audiences from a lively Spanish jota danced to the accompaniment of castanets to a joyful midsummer's ritual from Yugoslavia; from the drama of a silent Dalmation Kolo to the foot-stomping exuberance of Appalachian fiddling and clogging. Mandala is equally adept at splashing a line of swirling Mexican skirts across a stage, and evoking a still Norwegian night.

The Ensemble has appeared on stage from Carnegie Hall to Calais, Maine. Versatile and adaptable, it has been featured in special performances for Queen Elizabeth, the 1983 Rattvik International Folk Festival in Sweden, and Quebec's World Folklore Festival in 1983. Mandala has also been the subject

Selectmen's Meeting

Chairman John N. DeCosta explained the woodwork needs painting, the iron railing needs strengthening and the roof possibly needs replacing; it at least needs repairing, he added.

The board decided to have Executive Secretary Carol Adams and Bruce Rocha view the gazebo and assess what is needed and what it will cost. DeCosta noted that Rocha was on the original committee that supervised building the gazebo. Selectmen will look into the possibility of having Highway Surveyor Manuel R. Nunes and the Lions' Club work with them to repair the structure.

On another matter with Mr. Souza, Selectmen denied him permission to live in a trailer on his land while a house is being built.

The request was denied on the grounds Souza did not meet any of the allowed uses; namely,

Marion Visiting Nurses

ANNUAL FUND DRIVE COMING

The Marion Visiting Nurse Association will hold its annual Fund Drive starting Sunday, August 5th, and Monday, August 6th. On those days volunteers will canvass the town of Marion door-to-door to ask for donations.

The Association, which this year celebrates its 70th anniversary, is a certified agency which provides home health care to the residents of Marion and Rochester regardless of ability to pay. In addition to nursing visits and home health aid, the Association provides through contracts physical therapy, speech therapy, occupational therapy and social services. The group also provides medical equipment, and a formal hospice program is available.

Co-chairpersons of the drive this year are Cynthia Harlow and Joanna Severance. Ms. Harlow said "the agency depends on the fund drive to help maintain its status as a self-supporting organization. In spite of increased costs to the MVNA in order to comply with many state regulations, with the ongoing support of the residents the organization continues to be able to offer a high standard of service."

Residents who are not contacted during the drive can send contributions to Mrs.

Society where prints of the Walling's 1856 map (frameable), the book "Mattapoisett and Old Rochester" (full of nostalgia), and the Society's commemorative cup plate may be purchased.

The cup plates commemorate the 25th anniversary of the Mattapoisett Historical Society and were designed by George C. Avila of Mattapoisett with the ship "Acushnet" on them.

The "Acushnet" was built in Mattapoisett at the T.G. Barstow & Son yards in 1840 for the agents of Bradford and Fuller of Fairhaven. Herman Melville was a member of the crew of the "Acushnet" in 1843 and referred to the ship as "his Harvard and Yale". His knowledge of whaling was acquired while on the "Acushnet" and inspired the classic novel, "Moby Dick", which he wrote.

The Mattapoisett Historical Museum has copies of the certificate for the arrest of Herman Melville for deserting the "Acushnet" and a copy of the crew listing Melville as a U.S. Citizen from New York, twenty-one years of age, 5'9½" tall, dark complected with brown hair.

Interest in Herman Melville and the ship "Acushnet" is increased by the New Bedford's stamp club's issuance of a cacheted first day cover for the 20-cent Herman Melville commemorative stamp that will go on sale

Letter to The Editor

Part of the time I work in an office in Marion where I really enjoy a telephone with touch-dialing. When I come home to Mattapoissett and use the 'phone there, I notice the difference. It is like trading my car for a horse-drawn buggy; or trading our house for another with "outside plumbing".

On July 12 the New Bedford Standard-Times published reports of interviews with Sandy Williams of the Telephone Company and with State Senator Edward P. Kirby of Whitman, Plymouth County.

Ms. Williams announced that the Company plans to spend $34,000,000 on changing to electronic or computer switching (including touch-dialing) in fourteen towns in Plymouth County between now and 1990, as funds become available. Wareham, Rochester and Middleboro are included; Mattapoissett is not. When asked about this omission, Ms. Williams replied that our town does not have the growth record to meet one of the Company's criteria.

According to a directory which I have, the year-round population of Mattapoissett is 5,597; Marion, 3,392. I do not have the statistics, but I have an idea that Mattapoissett has also grown more than Marion since World War II. The proportionate growth is probably less than Rochester's, and may be behind that of other towns in the list of fourteen. Ms. Williams herself admits that our "residents have long complained of poor service".

And what of Senator Kirby? He conducted a survey of complaints for telephone users and received about 600 answers, which he brought to the attention of the Telephone Company. In his interview he said, "I figured with the divestiture of A T & T, it might be a tough fight to compete for less available funds, so I said 'It's now or never.'" He added that in the absence of a survey, people who have a low level of service "don't make a point of constantly reporting complaints, which gives the phone company the false impression people are satisfied with the level of service."

Of course Mattapoissett is not in Senator Kirby's district, but is a sort of vermiform appendix to the district of Senator William Q. MacLean, Jr. of Fairhaven, Bristol County. Fairhaven, which town is a part of the New Bedford exchange, has the benefits of electronic switching and available touch-dialing. Whether he has ever been in Mattapoissett long enough to use a 'phone for an outgoing call, I don't know. Whether he can be reelected without the votes from Mattapoissett, I should guess that the answer is "yes".

SNORKELING STUDY OF COASTAL AREA-LLOYD CENTER

Join Lloyd Center Director Alan Hankin on a snorkeling study of our coastal area on Sunday, July 22nd, at 1:30 p.m. This three-hour program is free but enrollment is limited and advanced registration is required. To register for this program call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505 or stop by Tuesday through Sunday 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Our coastal resources are made up of a number of coastal features including sandy beaches, rocky coastal areas, salt marshes and estuaries. This snorkeling program will examine each of these zones. We will focus on the diversity of organisms which are found in these areas and the adaptations of each to its special niche.

Participants are required to provide their own snorkel, face mask and flippers. Good swimming skills are also required as participants will be spending most of the program in the water. Instruction in snorkeling will be included at the beginning of the program. For additional information call the Lloyd Center at 990-0505.

DANCE WITH ARTIE SHAW ORCHESTRA AT ZEITERION

The All-New Artie Shaw Orchestra, under the direction of Brockton native Dick Johnson, will bring the Big Band sounds of swing and jazz, and the fun of dancing, to the Zeiterion Theatre for two performances Thursday and Friday, July 19 and 20 at 8:15 p.m.

Just for the event, a ringside dance floor has been created. The first four rows of theatre seats will be removed allowing ample space to dance the night away, in air-conditioned comfort.

Personally supervised by Artie Shaw, the All-New Artie Shaw Orchestra has been acclaimed as 'big band at its best'. Audiences will hear and dance to great classics such as "Begin the Beguine", "Nightmare", "Frenesi", "Out of Nowhere", "Traffic Jam", "My Heart Stood Still", "Yesterdays", "Back Bay Shuffle", "Non-Stop Flight" and many, many more.

When Artie Shaw began thinking seriously about forming a new band for the 1980's, he knew, if it happened, that he would hire and rehearse the musicians himself. Personal involvement is a must. When it deals with his music, it always is. The right

Dick Johnson studied at the New England Conservatory. After a stint in a U.S. Navy Band, he toured with Charlie Spivak, and played lead alto in Buddy Morrow's reed section. During the late 50's he returned to playing in the New England area, and fronted groups of his own.

Dick has appeared around the country during the past few seasons in numerous jazz and swing festivals - The Newport Jazz Festival, The Kool Jazz Festival and Symphony Hall in Boston.

Tickets are available at the Zeiterion Theatre Box Office and all Ticketron Outlets. For more information or to reserve seats call 994-2900.

Smokers Liberation

Would you like to quit smoking cigarettes? Join the American Cancer Society's Smokers Liberation Program and learn how. The sessions will be held at Brandon Woods of Dartmouth, 567 Dartmouth Street, from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays for four weeks beginning July 31st. Charles McCarthy, R.N. will be the facilitator. A fee of $25. will be charged but a rebate of $20. will be returned to participants who attend all sessions of the program.

Participants learn about themselves as smokers: what type of smokers they are, what motivates them to smoke. From this information, quit strategies are developed. Group discussion is emphasized.

To register call the American Cancer Society at 996-6262.
